

WITTNER CHROME 200D

COLOR REVERSAL MOTION PICTURE FILM

Product Highlights

- Uniform color reproduction
- Very good with skin tones
- Neutral gray scale
- Good reciprocity characteristics
- Good processing stability
- Good archival properties when correctly processed
- Excellent dimensional stability

Overview

Wittner Chrome 200D is a medium speed color reversal film for excellent color reproduction. This versatile film provides a wonderful grain structure with a highly nostalgic look.

Based on Agfachrome RSX-II 200 emulsion, coated onto clear polyester base.

Use for daylight filming although you can use it with tungsten if properly filtered.

Specifications
Speed	Daylight (5500 K) ISO 200/24° Tungsten (3400 K) ISO 50/18° (with Wratten Filter No. 80A)
Applications	Indoor/outdoor for advertising, nature cinematography, documentaries, music videos, amateur film. Yields an projectable original. Also good for telecine transfers and television filming for a lovely and nostalgic retro look. Get the nostalgic feeling of 'reel film' using this product for your project.
Process	Process E-6
Color Saturation	Medium
Grain	Visible
Sharpness	Good
Exposure Latitude	Excellent for a color reversal product